In response to the 12/10/02 after final amendment, the Office realized it had inadvertently cited the EP 162,302 number instead of the intended EP 449,017. The Office was arguing the teachings of EP 449,017 of which Applicant could not find in the cited EP 162,302 reference. Both EP 163,302 and EP 449,017 were cited by Applicants in their 10/02/98 IDS. The Office regrets any inconvenience this may have caused Applicants. The below office action will cite the correct EP 449,017 reference and will be non-final. The Office incorporates all previous remarks to EP 162,302 now to be applied to EP 449,017.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-4 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Koyama et al. or Terahima et al.

See the appropriate paragraph of paper 9.

Claims 1-5 and 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by EP 449,017.

See the appropriate paragraph of paper 9.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 12/10/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' amendments have overcome the 35 USC 112 issues.

Art Unit: 1743

Applicants stated EP 162,302 failed to teach the claimed polymer weight percentages on page 2 lines 30+. The Office intended these remarks to EP 449,017 which does teach the claimed weight percentages.

Applicants state Terashima et al. and Koyama et al. fail to teach the claimed weight percentages. The Office agrees and has removed these rejection from any claims containing weight percentage limitations.
